

Asia-Pacific Journal of Industrial Management (APJIM)
Submission Rules

[Submit a paper]

1.1 The paper to be submitted must satisfy the terms and conditions stated in the instructions to authors, and must make a sufficient contribution to the advancement and development of industrial management. The instructions shall be decided separately.

[Original and unpublished]

1.2 Only original and unpublished paper can be submitted. The paper should be unpublished and not have been submitted elsewhere as of the day it is received.

[Acceptance or rejection for publication]

1.3 The APJIM Editorial Committee shall determine whether the paper is published in the journal referring to peer reviewers' opinion and notify the author of the decision. Should it be determined that the paper is not publishable, the APJIM Editorial Committee shall immediately notify the author of the decision.

[Rebuttal]

1.4 Should the paper be deemed not publishable in the journal, the author may come forward if he/she has a specific opinion. The number of rebuttals for the same paper shall be limited to once.

[Publishing fees]

1.5 The fee should be paid immediately. The publishing fee shall be decided separately.

[Copyright]

1.6 As a general rule, the copyright of papers published in the journal belongs to the APJIM.